

11 February 1952

Michael G. Corson, [redacted]

Requirement for Technical Exploitation - [redacted]

1. In August 1951, you requested us to furnish [redacted] with [redacted] For your information, [redacted] are being shipped under B/L No. 574 to [redacted] for delivery to you.

2. You may also recall that at the time of your request for [redacted] you undertook to analyze such sets in conformity with certain of our requirements. Therefore, we enclose our requirements dated 4 February 1952, [redacted]

3. Since the extent of your facilities for the above analysis is not definitely known here, please advise if any of the accompanying requirements are beyond your capabilities.

4. We shall appreciate it if you will acknowledge receipt of [redacted] and the enclosed requirements, and advise us of the approximate date when we may expect the final results of your analysis.

MICHAEL G. CORSON

cc: [redacted]

Enclosures -
As indicated

MCorson:mbl

cc: [redacted]